ABOUT

The Philadelphia Orthopaedic Research Forum (PhORF) is a collaborative organization focused on advancing orthopaedic and musculoskeletal research through the exchange of ideas, innovation, and scholarship within the greater Philadelphia research community.

EXHIBITOR INFORMATION

The PhORF is a cutting-edge educational and collaborative forum bringing together leading Orthopaedic Surgeons from across the greater Philadelphia region along with local researchers and trainees. The PhORF leverages the rich environment of Philadelphia's Orthopaedic community to create a setting for collaborative learning while providing an opportunity for exhibitors to exhibit their products within the educational space, interact with forum attendees, and receive recognition for supporting the PhORF.
